READ and FEED- One of the local teachers (a former student of mine-I'm so proud!) here in Zebulon is doing a summer ministry called Read and Feed. She and other volunteers go to local communities and feed lunch and read and fellowship with the neighborhood kids. She found that several students in her classroom went without food over the weekends so she was really concerned about the summer. If you would like to volunteer for this project please see me. I will be helping on June 26 and June 29. If you can't go, please consider helping to pack lunches, donate peanut butter, jelly, juice boxes, apple sauce, nabs or other lunch items (non-perishable). Please also consider cleaning out your children's books (new or used-all ages and reading levels). We will gladly take them to give to these children who usually do not have many books of their own. Thanks for considering helping this community effort. Please see Gina if you have any questions. Thanks in advance!
