OCTOBER 2018 NEWSLETTER

October 2018 - From the Pastor

The number one reason people will attend a church service might surprise you. They come as a result of a church member inviting them. That's right! They don't come because the church has a flashy website, an informative Facebook page, or even an awesome pastor. They come because someone took the time to extend to them an invitation. Let me give you three good reasons to invite someone to our services.

1) They might make a friend. My guess is some of your best friends are here at Hopkins Chapel. Friendship is one of life's great treasures, and church is a great place to make friends. How neat would it be if you invite someone to church and they made a lifelong friend? Who do you know that needs a friend? Invite them to church.

2) They might be encouraged. They say only 20% of an iceberg is visible above the water. The rest is below the surface. I think people's struggles are like that, too. You never really know what they are going through. They might appear happy on the outside, when in fact they are in need of hope and encouragement. A simple invitation might just provide them that spark of hope. Do you know anyone that needs encouragement? Invite them to church.

3) They might meet Jesus. In the book of John, you read about a guy named Andrew who brought his brother to meet Jesus. Turns out his brother was Peter, the one who eventually became a great Apostle of Jesus. By far, the best reason to invite someone to church is they might meet Jesus. Eternity can be altered through a simple invitation. So what do you say? Who can you invite to Hopkins Chapel this week?
