Scripture Memory Verse for May:

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58-NASB)

MAY 2019 NEWSLETTER

As H.B. Charles, Jr. says, “The challenges of life confront us all. You cannot cancel your appointment with trouble.” Christianity is a battleground, not a playground. There is nothing you can do to prevent bad things from happening in your life. However, you can determine your response. You can...turn the other cheek...go the second mile...love those who hate you...bless those who persecute you...forgive those who offend you...overcome evil with good...be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord...give thanks in all circumstances...count it all joy when you meet trials of various kinds. (See Matthew 5:39, 41, 43-44; Luke 17:4; Romans 12:21; 1 Corinthians 15:58; 1 Thessalonians 5:18; James 1:2). Frederick Buechner defines a Christian this way, “A Christian isn't necessarily any nicer than anybody else, just better informed.” You have options for dealing with trouble and problems that an unbeliever doesn't have available to them. Through the presence of God, the promises of His living Word and the power of the Holy Spirit, I can choose to be happy; I can choose to trust; I can choose to love; I can choose to forgive; I can choose to hope again. May God help us to choose wisely through each event of life. The world around us is watching!
