Scripture Memory Verse for June:

I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go;
I will counsel you with My eye upon you. (Psalm 32:8-NASB)

JUNE 2019 NEWSLETTER

You are faced with many decisions over the course of a day. Some are pretty cut and dry; this is right-that is wrong! Would it be that all your decisions were that easy! When you are not certain what to do, you need someone who can offer true help and wise counsel. Take a moment to find Psalm 32:8, the memory verse for June (it is here on your newsletter). Please note that this is a personal commitment from the Lord. I like what Dr. Charles Stanley says, “The Lord is a loving heavenly Father who is never too busy to listen to us when we come to Him for guidance.” If you will come to Him seeking and believing, the Scripture promises instruction, teaching, & counsel. How good to know that as you open the Word of God you don’t just get information, but solid application to guide you in whatever decision or situation you might be facing. God’s goal is not to just help you distinguish between truth and error, as important as that is, but between what is good and what is best. Verse 10 makes this promise, “...he who trusts in the Lord, lovingkindness shall surround him.” In obedience to the guidance of God, you will see the evidence of God’s goodness and love, surrounding you and protecting you on every side. Take your every decision, whether great or small, to the Lord in prayer, asking Him what He’d have you to do. Then open His Word, claiming the promise of His constant instruction, teaching & counsel. Remember, God never makes a mistake, and is always faithful to keep His Word to you who will believe.

*Love you,
Pastor Earl*
