God loves you!! Those simple words have confounded philosophers throughout the ages. Almighty God, who created the universe, who with one word, has all power to accomplish His will, loves us! It is comforting to know that He has everything under control & in all events, He works them out for our good. He comforts us in our time of need & shows grace and mercy in His own unique way.

God wants the best for His children. He desires fellowship with us; however, because we have all sinned, we could never enter His presence. It's not a matter of our good works outweighing our bad works, being a moral person, obeying the Golden Rule, etc, & feeling that since God is a loving God, He will understand our shortcomings & let us into heaven. Sin cannot exist in God's presence & has to be punished. If we have committed just ONE sin, we cannot enter heaven. God saw that the only way to reconcile us to Him was to pay the penalty Himself, through sending His son, Jesus. Our sins were placed on Jesus & when He was crucified, His blood covered ALL of our sins and mistakes.

God loves you!! He knows your favorite color, your hopes & dreams, what causes you anxiety & what causes you fear. He knows You better than anyone. If you have not made your eternal destination secure, why not do it now? The greatest inheritance you could leave your children is the assurance that they will see you again one day. Children, the greatest love you could show your parents, is giving them the peace of mind that your eternal destiny is secure.

God loves you!! He wants you with Him forever. He is your "cheering section". When no one else is pulling for you, He is. He'll never abandon & never leave you. You always have someone to talk to & He is just a prayer away! He has written an entire book outlining His great love. Why not open it & begin reading, even if it's just a few verses a day to start off with. You will gradually notice a world of difference in both your attitude & your overall approach to life. The Bible says to "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you". Seek God first in all that you do & you will begin to experience the true peace & joy that only God can provide!
