I spoke about adoration and confession the previous two months. Let's take a moment to review how important Thanksgiving is to our prayer experience. From the Scriptures we read, "In everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thessalonians 5:18). Even the painful circumstances of life have the potential for gratitude. Think about it like this: you might have need for surgery and certainly dread the pain and perhaps the long recovery period. As you are praying about your impending surgery, be thankful for the skill of the surgeon. Indeed, in everything, give thanks. Sometimes we struggle in prayer for the knowledge of the will of God. Here there is no doubt. Giving thanks is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. Always and forever God's will. Give thanks by focusing on our Lord's Past Blessings, his Present Favors, and His Promised Grace. Make sure thanksgiving is not confined to a holiday in November, but the habit of every believer, in every prayer, daily. Thanking God for you!
