“Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you...” (1 Corinthians 15:1-2).

An old cowboy once said, “I’m not what I’m gonna be. I’m not what I ought to be. But, thank God, I’m not what I was!” He understood the key truth of the Scriptures that as Christians, we are a work in progress. Paul said, “I preached...you received...” Through faith in Jesus Christ, we are saved (past tense), and as a result are guaranteed eternal life. But Paul also says, “By which also you are saved...” Another way to say that is through which you are being saved (present tense). Well, Pastor, which is it? It is both! Daily rejoice in the fact that God has saved you. That being said, you did not exhaust the meaning of salvation when you first believed. Salvation goes on from strength to strength and from glory to glory. God’s goal is not just to save you so you can go to heaven when you die, but to make you more like your Savior in this life. I am saved, sin and death have no hold on me. I am being saved, sanctified in my salvation, and transformed daily in the way I live! Thanks be to God!
