We are all faced with many decisions over the course of a day. Most are pretty cut and dry; this is right-that is wrong! Would it be that all our decisions were that easy. When we find ourselves not certain as to what to do, we need someone who can offer true help and wise counsel. In Psalm 32:8 we find this reassuring word from our Lord, “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with My eye upon you.” Did you see it; our Lord promises to provide us with three things that are critical, instruction, teaching, & counsel. What a relief to know that as we open the Word of God, we don't just get information but solid application to guide us through whatever decision or situation we may be facing. God's goal is not to just help us distinguish between truth and error, as important as that is, but between what is good and what is best. We should take our every decision, whether great or small, to the Lord in prayer, asking Him what He'd have us to do. Then confidently open the Bible, ready to claim the promise of faithful instruction, teaching & counsel. We can trust in a God who never fails and never makes a mistake. He is always faithful to keep His Word and provide us a path to His guidance and help in our times of need.

God Bless!
Pastor Earl
