FEBRUARY 2024 NEWSLETTER

We just finished up our study on Wednesday nights into the life of Job (by the way, we begin our study in the book of Joshua on February 7th). In Job 1:1, it says, “There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man was blameless, upright, fearing God and turning away from evil.” Do you see Job’s four qualities: blameless, upright, fearing God, turning away from evil. In these four are two character traits, or who we are, that being blameless and fearing God, and two conduct traits, or what we do, that being upright, and turning away from evil. Now, take Job’s name out of that passage and put your name there. How do you stack up? Would God call you blameless and one who fears (or reverence’s God)? Does he know you to be a person who is upright (a person of integrity) and one who turns away (or shuns) evil? You say, that’s a tall order. I agree. Where do I begin? With your character, because conduct always follows character. Isolate those four qualities then pray and ask God what needs the most attention in your life right now. Seek God’s direction for the changes needed in your life from the Scriptures. God commended Job. May He do the same in your life, too.
