“...Everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Man will confess him also before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God.”

(Luke 12:8-9). There is no such thing as a “secret” disciple. We are all called to openly affirm Christ as we daily follow Him. In fact, public confession of the Lord Jesus is one of those “things that belong to salvation,” (Hebrews 6:9). While salvation is intensely personal, it’s never private; it’s always public! This act of confessing Christ before men bears the implication of risk and negative consequences. Certainly, there could be persecution and hardship for publicly identifying with our Savior before men. At the same time, the Lord’s confession in heaven of true disciples suggests great reward, perhaps in this life, for certain in the life to come. Obedience to this command of Jesus is not a means of salvation; it is an indication of salvation. We cannot earn entrance to heaven by volunteering for martyrdom or by shouting the name of Christ in public. That being said, true disciples prove their mettle when they boldly proclaim Jesus as their Messiah, Savior, King and God.

Go boldly in His name today!
