I am going to use this space on the newsletter over the next church year to offer brief thoughts each month on the subject of prayer. My text over these months will be taken from Matthew 6:5-14 (take a moment to read this passage). Prayer in its simplest and most basic sense is a conversation with God. Of all the spiritual disciplines, prayer is second only to your reading, meditating and study of the Word of God. Sadly, many Christians spend little time in sustained prayer. While one may offer a sentence of prayer here and there throughout the day, rarely do many spend more than a brief few minutes in conversation with God. It’s obvious, from this text, that Jesus wants prayer to be a regular habit in our life. Verse 5 says, “...when you pray...”; verse 6 says, “...when you pray...”; verse 7 says, “...when you are praying.” You get the picture-it’s not a matter of if you pray, it is a matter of when you pray. The idea is clear that you and I will pray. Let there be a spiritual balance to your life. God will speak to you as you go to the Scriptures, you speak to God when you spend time in prayer. Jesus prayed. He wasn’t teaching something He didn’t practice. You are being like your Savior, when you pray...(more to come next month).

Your prayer partner,
Pastor Earl
