Sometimes it can be the most learned scholars that come along and simplify our Christian Walk with a few words. Case in point: Dr. R.T. Kendell, now almost 90 years old, was asked recently what advice he would give to today young preachers. Without hesitation, Kendell said, "Know your Bible and pray a lot (my emphasis)." Sound advice for all of us! We have spent several months reviewing the Lord's Prayer, as recorded in Mathew 6:5-14. Jesus began this prayer with three petitions that cause us to focus on Him, not us. We looked at the first of these (Hallowed be Your name) last month. Second, Jesus said, pray this way...(Your Kingdom Come). This is a phrase where I call upon the Lord to rule and reign in my life right now, today, at this very moment. That's crucial because yesterday is over, and tomorrow is not here. I need victory today as I battle the one Paul calls, "the god of this age," (2 Cor. 4:4). I want Your kingdom, not mine; I want Your name to be honored, not mine. This world is at war, not just militarily, but spiritually at war for the souls of men. One of our greatest weapons in warfare is prayer, a prayer that begins by saying to our Father in Heaven, "Your Kingdom Come." Reign over my life Holy God, for my good and for Your glory.
