The second petition in the Lord's Prayer, (Matthew 6:9-15), is found in verses 12, 14-15. Let's break this petition into two parts. This month focus on verse 12(a), "And forgive us our debts..." This part of the prayer establishes the fact, first, that we are sinners in need of forgiveness. Our deepest need is that we have rebelled against a holy God. The fundamental problem in our life is not a lack of education, lack of opportunity, or some unmet social needs. We have a spiritual problem and that problem is sin. We are sinners by nature and by choice. We need forgiveness. Second, Jesus teaches that not only have we sinned, but we also have the hope of forgiveness, a hope that allow sinners, rebels against God, to approach God's throne and ask for forgiveness. How might you ask? Through the substitutionary sacrifice of Jesus on the cross of Calvary. Albert Mohler says, "The sum and substance of the gospel is that a holy and righteous God who must claim a full penalty for our sin both *demand*s that penalty and provides it." Christ is our substitute, and His life is sacrificed for our sin so that God's judgment against us is removed. Last, this passage demonstrates that God is willing to forgive. By teaching us to pray in this way, Jesus implies that God desires to forgive our sin. I believe that the only thing that surpasses our need for forgiveness is God's determination to forgive sin. As the puritan Richard Sibbes famously said, "There is more mercy in Christ than sin in us." Hallelujah for His mercy! Don't run from God when you sin, run to Him! Next month, we'll look at forgiving others.
