Springtime is on our doorsteps, and I, for one, couldn't be happier. I don't handle cold weather well at all. I'm glad to know winter will eventually give way to spring. That's because our seasons change. The promise of that change is Scriptural. In Genesis 8:22, the Lord says, "While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." This verse comes right on the heels of God's promise to Noah that He will not send another flood. A promise He has never broken and will never break. God keeps His Word. We take for granted sunrises and sunsets, the changing of the seasons, yet all these functions are but evidence that God is on the throne and keeping His promises. Warren Wiersbe says, "all creation preaches a constant sermon, day after day, season after season, that assures us of God's loving care. We can trust His Word, for 'there has not failed one word of all His good promise,' (I Kings 8:56)." Praise be to His matchless name and His timeless Word!

Love you much!
Pastor Earl
