I am so grateful for the years the Lord has allowed me to pastor here. Living in the Hopkins community and serving the church has been such a delight. May God continue to grace the church in the years before us with His presence and guidance. Kathy & I want to thank you for the Pastor Appreciation gift last Sunday. What a surprise and what a blessing! How we so love each and every one of you. While we are away this weekend, be blessed through the ministry of Brother Bill Ausley. And remember, if you haven't already, please go and vote this Tuesday. It was the late Charlie Kirk who said, "If Christians don't get involved in politics, politics will erase their right to be Christians." Vote your Biblical values as you go to polls this week. And may God extend His mercy on the United States of America and lead His church to know and courageously do His will. – Pastor Earl
